

THE MORE

The tragedy in sorrow
The innocence of love
The emotion in desire
The darkness one becomes
As they fade
into something that they hate
That someone they love

Chorus

The more that you hate me
The more that I love you
The more that you hurt me
The more that I need you
The more that you hate me
The more that I love you
The more that you hurt me
The more that I need you

Surrender what you've become
For it is what you are
And you are what you hate
What you hate you have become
You laugh as I'm crying
You laugh as I'm dying
You laugh as I'm killing myself just for you
I'm killing myself

Chorus

Chorus

Guitar solo

You laugh as I'm falling
You laugh as I'm crawling
You laugh as I'm living my life just for you
My life just for you
You laugh as I'm crying
You laugh as I'm dying
You laugh as I'm killing myself just for you

Chorus
