

EMOTIONLESS

Emotionlessly I fall
Into a world I can't hide
So sick playing games
I'm tired of living this lie
Your words mean
Nothing to me now

Chorus

I hate you but
You'll never know
Your love is drowning me so
I hate you but
You'll never know
Your love is drowning me so
I hate you but
You'll never know
Your love is drowning me so

Lost in the pain
Of not letting go
Should have said goodbye
So long ago
Yet I keep the torture
Brewing inside
By having your love
Right by my side

The way I feel for you
Is slowly killing me
The way I feel for you
Is slowly killing me

Chorus

I hate you but
You'll never know
Your love is drowning me so
I hate you but
You'll never know
Your love is drowning me so

Your love is drowning me so (Whisper)
Your love is drowning me so (Whisper)

I could never forget
The look in your eyes
When you looked at me
I felt that I could fly
When I looked into your eyes
And there's nothing there
Did you forget what it was
That we once shared

Chorus

I hate you but
You'll never know
Your love is drowning me so so so so so so
I hate you but
You'll never know
Your love is drowning me so
