

WINTER WITHOUT YOU

i see the snow comes falling down a full moon lights the starry night trees standing bare on frozen grounds a strange scene drawn in black and white and i feel the coldness crawling up my bones

it's winter without you long cold lonely nights
it's winter without you
frozen inside and no warmth can melt the ice the ice i feel inside my broken heart a life so lonesome and forlorn my inner coldness starts to grow nothing but silence all around i'm lost in a world of ice and snow and there's a numbness creeping over me

long cold and lonely nights
frozen inside and no warmth can melt the ice
i'm frozen inside

it's a lonely world with no warmth in it it's an icy world with no love in it i fall into winter's cold embrace and then my heart dies

so lonely nights
it's winter without you
frozen inside and no warmth can melt the ice

frozen inside
frozen inside
